

Fire Legislation

This half-day course is designed to assist 'Responsible Persons' in meeting their legal requirements for fire safety. This course provides candidates with an overview of fire safety legislation and guidance, together with a clear focus on the duties of the 'Responsible Person' as laid out in the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005

Course Duration: ½ Day Certification: Fire Legislation Certificate

Course Outcomes:

At the end of the course each delegate will:

- Identify the relevant fire safety legislation and associated guidance
- Define 'Responsible Person' and other key related terms
- Detail the key fire safety duties as they apply to the 'Responsible Person' and recognise the role of enforcing authorities

Target Audience:

- People who have themselves been identified as the 'Responsible Person' within their own situation, or others required to work closely on fire safety matters with such a 'Responsible Person'

Pre-requisites:

- None.

Course Accreditation:

- Fire Legislation Certificate, which First Rate Training currently validates for 3 years.

Course Summary:

- To provide delegates with the knowledge and understanding to assist them in dealing with the legal requirements placed on a 'Responsible Person'. This interactive course will also prove an invaluable insight for those managers who themselves have been assigned individual fire safety responsibilities
