

IOSH Managing Safely Course

This course is approximately 4 days dependant on group sizes and aims to cover all major HSE issues and provide delegates with the right level of knowledge and practical experience needed to manage key issues within their teams.

Course Duration: 4 days

Certification: IOSH Managing Safely Certificate

Course Summary

Managing safely is a course for managers and supervisors in any sector or organisation. This accredited qualification will provide delegates with an understanding of their individual Health & Safety responsibilities and outline necessary skills to manage risks within the workplace.

Course Outcomes:

- Identify their responsibilities for Health & Safety.
- Explain the reasons for preventing workplace accidents.
- Explain the reasons for preventing occupational ill health.
- Define 'hazard', 'risk' and 'risk assessment'.
- Identify common hazard in the work place.
- Outline the requirements for the control of waste and pollution.
- Identify the demands of the law and how the legal system works.
- Describe a Health & Safety management system.

- Identify why and how accidents should be investigated.
- Outline basic performance indicators for monitoring activities.
- Carry out a Risk Assessment.

Target Audience:

- Line Managers
- Supervisors
- Individuals responsible for teams or groups of employees who require a basic knowledge of Health & Safety

Pre-requisites:

- None

Course Accreditation:

- First Rate Training (In-house)

Certification

- Valid for 3 years

